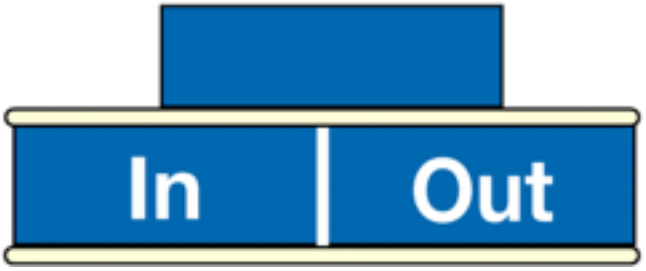
Judoka of the month

Noah Darby

who has attendance that is outstanding, and his judo has improved greatly



With the volume of people coming to classes it becomes very congested at the front desk

The new system to come in and out needs to be changed.

Book in as usual at the front desk.but when you leave after your class please use the door immediately to your left.
If you want tuck, to book courses,or gradings be patient if its busy.

Thank you

Under 8's

- Parents are responsible for bringing their child to Carn Brea Judo Club.
- Parents must accompany their child into the hall area where the class is held and stay for the duration of the class.
- New beginners parents must stay with their child for the duration of their class
- Parents must ensure their child is on time for their class. The warm up is important.
- Students attending the second class may enter the hall but must stay calm in the area until the previous class has finished.

Medical and contact information

Parents and guardians please can you make sure that all your children's medical conditions are up to date, children may have developed a new condition that we are currently not aware of.

JUDOKA OF THE WEEK

Well done all of you

Jacob Reed

Cayden Roberts

Samuel Reed

Mia Allard-Peck

Ellis Allard -Peck

We often get invited to other clubs invitational championships.

We will encourage any of you to enter any of them, but please inform us first so we are aware that you are entering and that you are aware of the rules for different associations. We have all the entry forms so please speak to the class sensei or the front desk.

Truro prep Invitational Saturday 11th November

Randori Day

Saturday 4th November

at

Helston Martial Arts Centre – Penrose Judo Club

The session will start at 10:30 a.m. & run for 1.1/2-hours. A lunch/recovery break. Followed by another 1.1/2-hours of judo. Finishing around 14:00.

The tatami fee £5.

The session is open to all seniors and juniors of 10-years and over. Please ensure juniors are able to cope with this session before bringing them along.

The aim of this session is to encourage judoka to train together, gaining confidence in their judo. THIS IS NOT A COMPETITION and the style of randori will reflect this.

Judoka from all associations are welcome, but must have a valid association license.

I look forward to seeing you at our first randori session.

Any questions, or for more information, please contact Darren Collick at dcollick@outlook.com

BRING A BUDDY

THIS HAS BEEN SO SUCCESSFUL

The 5pm class is full to overflowing.
That we now are considering running another class at 4pm
To be decided at the Club AGM

Any buddies that would like to try judo now must be placed on a waiting list until after October half term

Thank you for bringing your buddies
we look forward to meeting more after half term

FUN TEAM EVENT

There was so lovey techniques and some amazing turning in from our primaries and juniors.
