Did you know?
The BJC Ltd. is a non-profit company where all of the income generated by membership fees goes towards providing a wide range of services to ensure that you benefit, irrespective of your Judo experience or level.

* Provisional Licence provides for a single three month 'on the mat' trial. It does not entitle the holder to any BJC membership rights such as entry to gradings, competitions or voting rights. It is possible to upgrade the Provisional Licence to a Full Licence at any point during the three month or upon expiry.

^ A copy of the applicants current valid student ID card is required.

Volunteer Membership ^a £0.00

^a Volunteer membership does not carry any rights to partake in Judo activities as a participating Judoka nor does it confer any voting rights at the BJC AGM (or EGM if called).

There are many people, who are not themselves Judoka, who are active within the BJC and the affiliated clubs as volunteers. These people carry out important work assisting the club coaches in the many roles required for the successful management of a club. If this applies to you, it is useful to us to know something about the role(s) that you undertake and any relevant qualifications that you hold.
